

Please do not allow cell phones on airplanes. With the airlines treating people (who don't fly first or business class) like cattle and the arrogance of people who use cell phones, the added stress would make an already tense situation even more tense. Let's find ways to make traveling easier, not harder.